Anne suggested a blurb in the MKR newsletter i.e. "have you seen the website", or something similar.

Grove

Dan Cantliffe is researching the packinghouses that Marjorie used. Dan is collecting oral histories from people in Citra along with information about the types of citrus Marjorie grew. Some of this information is related to a person "Maxey" whom Jim Stephens mentions in his book.

Dan would like to see the grove as close as it was as when Marjorie was here. Dan reported it was fortunate that we did not put new citrus in because of the intense winter temperatures we experienced this past winter.
